

Groupage Transport Planner

Part of the NTEX Group, Immingham Transport is one of the largest transport and warehousing providers in the Humber region. We are currently looking for a Transport Planner to join our busy Distribution Team.

The role will primarily involve the routing of delivery vehicles, managing drivers and vehicles and helping to organise all aspects of our operation, in what can be a very high-pressured environment.

Efficient use of vehicles and drivers, a cost-saving mentality and continuous improvement of customer service are all key parts of the role. In addition, excellent communication skills are essential when dealing with all departments.

The successful candidate will have:

- A high level of organisation and attention to detail
- The ability to work on their own initiative within a time critical setting
- Good customer care skills
- The determination and willingness to resolve all issues to meet customer and business requirements
- Sound UK geographical knowledge
- A methodical, logical approach with good problem-solving abilities
- A keen eye for detail and accuracy
- Knowledge of Microsoft Office
- Previous experience within the transport and logistics sector

Desirable skills/experience:

- Knowledge of tachograph and WTD legislation.
  - Knowledge of groupage operations.
  - Knowledge of high consequence/value dangerous goods and loads.
- Most importantly the candidate must have a passion to get the job done and get it done right.

The package offered is negotiable reflecting the skills and experience of the successful candidate.
